

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found by said return of the Judges of Election and proclamation of said clerk, that a majority of votes cast in said First Precinct of said Fifth District has been cast against the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, that then the said Local Option Law of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, shall remain in full force in said precinct; but if it shall be found by the return of said Judges of Election and proclamation of said clerk, that a majority of all the votes cast, as prescribed in the preceding sections in said First Precinct of said Fifth District, has been cast for the sale of said spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, then the same may be sold, in said First Precinct of said Fifth District, as allowed under the license laws of this State, subject to the provisions hereinafter mentioned.

Proclamation.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That section ninety of article fifty-six of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Licenses," sub title "Oyster or Eating Houses," as the same was amended and re-enacted by the acts of eighteen hundred and sixty-four, chapter three hundred and forty-five, be and the same is hereby revived and re-enacted, so as to read as follows:

Repealed and re-enacted.

SEC. 90. If any person shall take out an ordinary license, as herein provided by law, without having the bedding and other accommodations required; if any person shall sell or barter any spirituous or fermented liquors, or lager beer, to any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age, he shall, on conviction, pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, together with the costs of prosecution, and upon failure to pay the same shall be committed to jail and confined therein until such fine and costs are paid, or for the period of forty days, whichever shall first occur; and it shall be the duty

License.